GREAT WORK OF ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION

PROVES A NOBLE ADJUNCT IN AIDING COMMISSION'S DISTRIBUTION OF SUPPLIES FOR BELGIANS.

Former Congressman Charles F. Scott, who went to Belgium with the Kansas Belgium Relief ship, Hannah, wrote a number of interesting letters during his absence to the Iowa Daily Register, of which he is the owner and editor, in regard to the situation of the Belgians and the work of distributing food to them. Discussing the great work of the Rockefeller Foundation, which has co-operated with the Commission for Relief in Belgium, Ex-Congressman Scott says:

"A most useful adjunct to the commission here is the Rockefeller Foundation. In addition to buying and sending over five full ship-loads of food, the Foundation is doing the work and paying the expenses of distributing the clothing which has come by the shipload from America. Being donated by thousands of people, in hundreds of towns and sent in small consignments to New York, this clothing was there piled into big boxes and shipped on here. Of course therefore, when it arrives here nobody has the slightest idea of what is in any of the boxes, and as a matter of fact there is something of nearly everything in every box."

"All these boxes are taken to one or the other of two great warehouses and turned over to the Rockefeller Foundation man—and a most capable man is he—Charles Jenkinson who for years in the Red Cross service, has been doing just this sort of work. He has these boxes opened and their contents piled upon tables where they are assorted and repacked into boxes which are numbered and labelled so that when they go to Brussels, the center for distribution, it is known exactly what each box contains. For this work of sorting and packing Belgian refugees are employed, both

METHODISTS PLAN PENSION FOR THE AGED

ONE MILLION DOLLARS OF A TEN MILLION FUND HAS BEEN RAISED FOR THAT PURPOSE — MEETING AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Ill., April 28.—Plans to raise a $10,000,000 fund to provide pensions for retired Methodist ministers, their widows and orphans, were outlined here today at the opening session of the national convention of bishops and conference of representatives of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Rev. Joseph E. Hingeley, corresponding secretary of the board of conference claimants, who made an address, said the movement for a retiring competency for aged ministers was on in all the great denominations and is being pushed with great force by the Presbyterians, the Methodist churches North and South, the Protestant Episcopal, the Disciples' church and certain sections of the Baptist and Congregational churches. The Methodists, with whom the $10,000,000 movement is but a few months old, already have obtained $1,000,000, Dr. Hingeley said. "The present intensive campaign," he said, "will reach its culmination at the meeting of the general conference at Saratoga Springs in May, 1916."

The meeting here is being attended not only by men prominent in Methodism, but by representatives of other denominations with pension schemes of their own. The denominations, it is said, are aiding each other in the movement.

men and women, and it can well be believed they are more than glad to get the job. The women are paid $2 a week and in addition are allowed to select from among the clothing they handle, one garment, or one pair of shoes each week. The men are paid $4.80 a week.

"As in all such cases, a good many articles appear in these boxes which excites one's curiosity. I noticed some white vests this afternoon and there is quite an assortment of dress suits, considerably the worse for wear. But by far the greater proportion of the gifts are admirably chosen—warm clothing, bedding, shoes,—and hundreds of boxes have come filled with new cloth to be given to those who will make it up into such garments as they need."

RIGGS BANK SUIT IS DEPARTMENTAL FIGHT

Washington, April 28.—The controversy between the Riggs National bank and officials of the treasury department will not be made an administration fight, at least on part of the administration, is the word that comes from the white house today. President Wilson told callers that he had not taken charge of the litigation, as was hinted in newspaper reports last week, but that it was being handled by the department of justice. The president further said that the matter was a departmental one and expressed the opinion that powers of the comptroller of the currency were perfectly clear under the law, and that it was a matter for congress to decide whether they were too great or not. The president is kept fully informed about the case and the progress being made.
